ANTHEM

Our Future in Our Hands

O precious jewel, clear waters abound
Worthy is the fuel, zealous and profound Mountains of wisdom,
in a God given kingdom
Oh how might and bright,
is that heavenly light.
Every pathway, super highway,
our future, in sight!
Born is the power,
in the youthful, bestowed.
The burning desire to be fruitful, to grow,
From the seed to the flower,
to tree that will tower.
Every strong wind, withstand!
Spread the roots through the land!
Singing high notes so the whole world will know,
Onwards we'll walk on, the needed will be done!
All out for our young ones,
a nation as one
Many oceans to sail, many worlds to explore
Fearless, we'll reach out, losing sight of the shore
For the wealth that we reach for,
will be ours there and then;
We are holding our future in our hands!

Vote of Thanks

It gives me great pleasure and privilege today to express my sincerest appreciation on behalf of my fellow graduates. Our profound gratitude goes to every single one of you who has made it possible for this physical graduation. Surely, no words can express the immense joy that we are feeling today. Thank you.

Whilst we thought and discussed on the speech that I am presenting, we had to ensure that there was less than 3% of plagiarism and that this speech is scrutinized through turn it in before I could pronounce it today. Ladies and gentlemen, these are amongst the things that will linger in our memories for many years to come. Nevertheless, thinking of how far we have climbed to reach where we are today, there is no doubt that throughout this journey, we have grown wiser in our fields of studies. We are now stronger and more intellectual individuals, with more confidence in our ability to lead and manage. The fact that we have made it this far, is a testimony of our perseverance, determination and the urge to beat the unknown and embrace our goals, as we hold our Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in our hands.

However, we have faced many challenges and obstacles, which we had to overcome. The outbreak of COVID-19, for instance, happened when most of us were in the middle of our studies. Yet, we survived and persevered. Moreover, we cannot imagine how many of our family members and loved ones are relieved that we are no longer bounded to assignments and deadlines. That is why, today, we can hold our heads high, knowing that we have surmounted all of the hardships that life has thrown at us along the way.

A graduation cap with a blue tassel and a rolled-up diploma tied with a red ribbon. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light green and yellow.

Before we conclude this chapter of our lives, we owe our success to all of those who have been there for us along the way. To all of our families, thank you for your support, understanding and affection over the years. To our devoted tutors, without you we would not have made it through, thank you. We extend our gratitude to the University administrators, librarians and all of you who have helped us through. Thank you to our employers, the government of Seychelles and sponsors for believing in us, investing in our professional growth, and releasing us from work to attend classes and complete assignments. You can rest assured that your investment will bear fruit. Above all, we give unlimited thanks to the Almighty for carrying us through.

Ladies and gentlemen, before I conclude, I would like to extend my warmest wishes to my fellow graduates. Let me express my heartfelt congratulations and best wishes to each and every one of you. A decade from now, we may not remember some of the theories we studied, but we will surely remember the love and the friendship we shared. I cannot guarantee you an easy journey, nor do I assume that it will be the same for everyone, but it is up to each and every one of us to make our aspirations come true. Let us commit ourselves to excellence in everything that we do.

My dear graduates, let's put our hands together to give ourselves a big round of applause.

Congratulations once again and thank you.
