Dear Staff/Students

The University of Seychelles continues to strongly support its students and staff community during the current outbreak of COVID-19. We also recognize that during this crisis situation, stress and anxiety are normal and these experiences are all understandable in the face of this significant challenge.

Therefore, UniSey will be providing psycho-social support to our staff and students in need. Should you wish to make use of this confidential service, please send your name, contact details and availability to Melina.Josephine@unisey.ac.sc who will organize for sessions with the experts.

In the meantime, for updates during this COVID-19 closure period, please consult our website at <https://unisey.ac.sc/>

Keep well and stay safe!
